ALSACE

One of the world's wine regions producing almost exclusively white wines, Alsace wines are pure, concentrated, and (while some late-harvest examples exist) dry, with a fruity, flinty, spicy quality.

VARIETAL WINES

Alsace was the first major region to put the name of the grape on the bottle. Varieties include riesling, gewürztraminer, pinot gris, muscat, pinot blanc and sylvanner.

FIELD BLENDS

2 types of blends exist: edelswicker (any local grapes) & gentil (only the "noble grapes"). There are 2 approaches here, an inexpensive blend, or a vineyard-designated wine meant to show top terrior first.

BOTTLES (750ML)

Hugel Gentil 2019 $29

Domaine Albert Boxler Edelzwicker Réserve 2017 $42

EASTERN FRANCE

The Jura wine region, while incredibly old fashioned, is a relatively new discovery in our wine world. It is located east of Burgundy, and not surprisingly there's plenty of pinot & chardonnay, as well as interesting native grapes.

SAVOIE

High in the Alps, where red varieties would struggle to ripen, there are crisp, fresh whites made from jacquère.

BOTTLES (750ML)

Domaine des Ardoisieres Vin des Allobroges St-Pierre d'Albigny Blanc Silice 2019 $55

ARBOIS CHARDONNAY (AND MAYBE A LITTLE SAVIGNIN)

Close to Burgundy in many ways, especially for chardonnay: expect a less ripe, but wholly different style of floral aromatics as well as a long earthy minerality.

BOTTLES (750ML)

Domaine Overnoy-Crinquand Arbois Chardonnay La Bidode 2018 $50

Caveau de Bacchus Arbois Chardonnay Melon a Queue Rouge 2017 $70

Domaine du Pelican Arbois Chardonnay Grand Coroulet 2019 $86

MAGNUMS (1500ML)

Château d'Arlay Côtes du Jura 2011 $138

Domaine du Pelican Arbois Chardonnay 2019 $164

VIN JAUNE (SAVIGNIN)

The pride and joy of the Jura is this yellow wine. This is a slightly late harvest wine which ages for over 6 years in barrel without being topped up; Sherry-like, but much more rare & complex.

HALF BOTTLES (375ML)

Domaine Rolet Arbois Vin Jaune 2010 $59

Benoit Badoz Côtes du Jura Vin Jaune 2011 $65

Domaine Berthet-Bondet Château-Chalon 2012 $165

NORTHERN RHÔNE

Perhaps a lot of ground lumped together, these are all perfumed, rich, wines, simultaneously fun & serious. As always in a warmer climate, ripeness is a mixed blessing, and we pick wines that retain freshness.

VIIGNIER

Exotic, rare, mysterious, intriguing, individual, delicious... all words to describe Condrieu, Château Grillet, and the few satellite viognier-based wines of the northern Rhône.

HALF BOTTLES (375ML)

Yves Cuilleron Condrieu La Petit Côte 2017 $44

BOTTLES (750ML)

Pierre Gaillard Condrieu 2018 $96

Château de Saint Cosme Condrieu 2018 $135

Domaine Gangloff Condrieu 2012 $178

MARSANNE & ROUSSANNE

Roussanne blended with marsanne is common in the Northern Rhône: marsanne adds the fat, richness, oily textures and sweetness to the wines, while roussanne brings more acidity, elegance and aromatic complexities to the wine.

BOTTLES (750ML)

J.L Chave Selection Saint-Joseph Circa 2018 $40

RHÔNE VALLEY, CORSICA & SOUTHERN FRANCE

SOUTHERN RHÔNE

Further south we find more white wine, but only a little compared to the reds. These wines tend to be very perfumed & floral, round & nutty, with a subtle freshness.

CORSICA

Not Italy and perhaps not even France, Corsica produces a large quantity of table wine, with only a little appellation wine. Whites in Ajaccio & Pattimonio are made from Vermentino and can be of high quality.

BOTTLES (750ML)

- Yves Leccia Patrimonio Blanc 2018 $62
- Domaine U Stiliccionu Ajaccio Emy-Lidia 2017 $72

LANGUEDOC-ROUSSILLON

An area that produces plenty of quantity, but until recently, lower quality. Surprisingly, there are soils here so similar to those in the Côte d'Or, the terrior is often referred to as the "grand cru of the Midi".

BOTTLES (750ML)

- Roc des Anges Côtes du Roussillon Blanc Effect Papillon 2020 $28

CHABLIS

ALIGOTÉ

The 'other' white grape from Burgundy is aligoté, and as prices have risen in the region, winemakers are focusing more on quality aligoté. It is known for high acidity, but can have complexities & great length in the right hands.

BOTTLES (750ML)

- Georges Lignier Bourgogne Aligoté 2017 $42
- Michel Lafarge Bourgogne Aligoté Raisins Dorés 2017 $45

CÔTE D'OR

While red Burgundy is commonly known to be a cerebral wine, fickle to evolve & express itself, it's white counterpart is pure pleasure: elegant orchard fruit, racy acidity, lush mouthfeel & a long finish.

CÔTE DE NUITS

While the northern half of the Côte d'Or is mostly known for reds, the excellent whites have an intensity all their own..

BOTTLES (750ML)

- Cyprien Arlaud Hautes Côtes-de-Nuits 2018 $48

SAINT-AUBIN

As the big three (Meursault, Chassagne & Puligny-Montrachet) have gone through the roof pricewise, there has been much more interest in the wines of Saint-Aubin. Imagine a higher-toned Meursault with more freshness & less body.

CALIFORNIA

When white wine is concerned, California is often thought of a hot place, where ripeness is often achieved at the expense of acidity. However there are pockets around the state, as well as careful wine-makers in search of balance.

CHARDONNAY

Chardonnay from California is often considered the typical style, since the famous judgment in 1976. These are richer wines with toasty oak often supporting the opulence.

OTHER GRAPE VARIETIES

Since few rules & traditions exist in the new world, talented, ambitious winemakers are free to plant and produce wines from unexpected grape varieties, often in microclimates similar to those found in the old world.

BOTTLES (750ML)

Scribe Winery Sylvaner Ode to Emil 2018 $58

Massican Napa Valley Sauvignon 2019 $60

Belle Pente Chardonnay Belle Pente Vineyard 2016 $62

CÔTE DE NUITS

The holy grail; not only are these wines exceptionally exotic, complex, aromatic (and expensive, but justifiably so), but also rare. Tiny quantities are produced, so while they're long on the palette, the bottles are fleeting.

THE HAUT-CÔTES DE NUITS

On top of the hill overlooking some of the world's finest vineyards. Due to the elevation & slope these don't ripen as much as those at the base of the hill, but in a warm vintage these are excellent, affordable options.

BOTTLES (750ML)

Julien Cruchandeau Haut-Côtes de Nuits Les Valancons 2019 $58

FIXIN & MARSANNAY

Just north of Gevrey-Chambertin and a little south of Dijon. In the right hands, these can rival esteemed vineyards from slightly south.

MOREY-ST.-DENIS

The wines of Morey-St.-Denis are possibly the hardest to identify stylistically: they've got the darkest fruit, but aren't the fullest, they seem to be the most "mineral", but aren't the most high-toned. Delicious & exciting though.

- Domaine Chapel Fleurie Charonnières 2019 $374

EASTERN FRANCE

The reds of the Jura (mostly pinot noir, but also tannic Trousseau & bright Poulsard) have been long overshadowed by the very special whites, but in the right hands, there is fun, earthy elegance here.

BOTTLES (750ML)

- Domaine Louis Magnin Arbin Mondeuse 2013 $65
- Domaine du Pélican Cuvée Trois Cépages 2017 $75

MAGNUMS (1500ML)

CHAMPAGNE

Yes, Champagne produces red wine! These can rival Burgundy for complexity in ripe vintages, but like their white cousins, have an intense underlying minerality.

BOTTLES (750ML)

- Egly-Ouriot Côteaux Champenois Ambonnay Rouge Cuvée Grands Côtes 2018 $352

ALSACE

While the Alsations tend to drink riesling with their red meats, a little red wine is produced: pinot noir. Already a cool weather-friendly grape, pinot develops in warm vintages to a silky, highly perfumed & mineral-driven style..

BOTTLES (750ML)

- Albert Boxler Pinot Noir 2016 $62

LOIRE VALLEY

While not common in the US, reds from the Loire, France's pastoral heart, are fixtures in Paris's casual restaurants. Usually earthy, sometimes berry fruited, but always delicious, exciting and food-friendly.

GROLLEAU

The dominant grape in the Loire is definitely cabernet franc, then pinot noir, then maybe gamay... Grolleau is there too, usually making rosé, but in the right hands a varietal wine can be fun and compelling!

BOTTLES (750ML)

Catherine et Pierre Breton Val de Loire Grolleau 2018 $47

Anne-Claude Leflaive, Clau de Nell Grolleau 2017 $92

PINOT NOIR

If you're like us, then you're always looking for more pinot noir. Pinots from Sancerre, made by great winemakers in great vintages can definitely compete with Burgundy.

BOTTLES (750ML)

Lucien Crochet Sancerre La Croix de Roy 2015 $49

MAGNUMS (1500ML)

CABERNET FRANC

The long-lived and most powerful wines are cabernet franc-based, and in the best vintages, when fully ripe, can rival Bordeaux for sturdy elegance. Expect berry & violet flavors & some spice.

A warm area which often preferred quantity over quality, produces excellent wines when carefully made by top winemakers. Mostly based on grenache, syrah, & carignan, but a little cabernet sauvignon might sneak in.

RED WINES OF LEBANON & THE RHÔNE VALLEY & SW FRANCE

LEBANON

Château Musar was started by Gaston Hochar after a trip to Bordeaux. Grapes are cabernet sauvignon, cinsault, carignan, grenache, and mourvèdre, and while it does resemble Bordeaux in some ways, it definitely has it's own style.

HALF BOTTLES (375ML)

Château Musar Bekaa Valley Red 2000 $58

BOTTLES (750ML)

Château Musar Bekaa Valley Red 2001 $124

CÔTES DU RHÔNE

"The slopes of the Rhône river". This large & long vineyard area, while broken up between the north (syrah) and the south (mostly grenache), the most general appellation, Côtes du Rhône, could be a few things: a blend of vineyards & grapes from all over, declassified single vineyards, all syrah, all grenache, containing white grapes... the possibilites are endless!

THE SOUTH-WEST

The tannat-based wines of Madiran, once known as "black wines" due to their thick-skinned, inky color are uncommon these days in the US. They're made in a more modern style now, but still need significant age. And let us not forget the original home of malbec: Cahors!

NORTHERN RHÔNE

Simply put: Violets & Peppercorns. Steep slopes, old vines, and only one grape: syrah (tiny amounts of viognier can be used to soften a wine, but this is pretty uncommon). These are complex, age-worthy wines, which offer terrific flexibility with food.

The common methods for producing sweet wines, especially white wines. Botrytis, or 'noble rot' is a disease which robs grapes from moisture, concentrating the sugar.

GERMANY

While most wine made in Germany is dry, they make a wide range of sweet wine, from a wide range of methods. Auslese: late harvest. Beerenauslese: botrytis. Eiswein: frozen grapes, concentrated juice. All styles have lively acidity & bright tropical fruit flavors.
